SUB-TREASURY AT CHICAGO ROBBED

Nearly $200,000 in Bills of Large Denomination Missing From Vaults.

TWO EMPLOYES SUSPECTED

SHORTAGE DISCOVERED SEV-ERAL DAYS AGO.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Although a score of detectives are at work on the case, the theft of $173,000 from the sub-treasury in this city last Wednesday seems as far from a solution as the day on which the robbery was committed. The general impression prevails that the thief must have been a government employe and several of these men are being closely watched, but as far as known tonight no tangible evidence has been discov-

Among those under surveillance is George W. Fitzgerald, who was in charge of the teller's cage from which the money was abstracted, but he insists he has no knowledge of how the money disappeared. • Fitzgerald in a statement tonight • said he thought some of the em- & oployes had stolen the money. Chicago, Feb. 25 .- One of the largest is not the largest-thefts from the Unite States treasury has been unearthed Chicago. Somewhere between $175,000 and $200,000 was stolen from the local subtreasury lost week. The money has disappeared as completely as if it had vanished from the face of the earth. The authorities here and in Washington have been working night and day on the robbery since it was discovered. Chief Wilkie of the United States secret service has been keeping informed by telephone and telegraph of every development, and according to telegraphic advices he will leave Washington today to take personal charge of the investigation.

Secretary Shaw of the treasury department was told of the gigantic theft when in Chicago last week and was in conference with Sub-Treasurer William Boldenweck and secret service officials. The money was stolen either a week ago Saturday, the next day or last Menday. The chances are it was abstracted on Monday. The loss was discovered on Tuesday. Chicago. Somewhere between $175,000 an

Big Bills Taken.

Just who discovered the loss the subtreasury officials would not admit last night. Neither would they tell from what department the money was taken, nor how the loss was discovered.

At first it was believed that there must be some errror in the bookkeeping. It was thought to be impossible that such a large sum of money could have been abstracted in the face of all the safeguards threwn around Uncie Sam's strong box.

The ledger men involved strenuously denied any error and an investigation showed there was no possible cierical mistake to account for the disappearance of the cash brought the inevitable conclusion This brought the inevitable conclusion that robbery was the only explanation. Just as certain was the deduction that the thieves were employes of the subtreasury and were at that moment pursuing their daily tasks. Every man who could have had anything to do with the case was called into Treasurer Boldenweck's office and put through an exhaustive examination and a still more rigid cross-examination. Captain Porter of the secret service also assisted at the inquisition.

They stood the ordeal, every one of them. All denied any knowledge of the theft and protested their innocence with their and protested their innocence with unanimity. The chances were 1,000 to 1 that one of the employes had either purioined the cash or had counived with some outsider. Day by day since then the sweating process has been kept up. Mr. Boldenweck, Captain Forter and his assistants have worked from daylight to darkness and from night until morning. All of yesterday the investigation proceeded in Mr. Boldenweck's private of the and at 11 o'clock at night lights were still burning in his office. Saturday there came a simmer of light. A faint clew pointed in the direction of a certain clerk, and that, followed up, directed the finger of suspicion to another employe, a close associate of the first man.

Screws Put on Suspects.

Screws Put on Suspects.

These men were summoned into the inquisition chambers separately and subjected to a grueling examination. The suspicious circumstances against them were paraded, the certainty of detection and punishment was impressed upon them, and they were advised to make a clean breast of whatever part they had played in the conspiracy.

One, thought to be the moving spirit, came through the ordeal without turning a hair. He remained calm and self-possessed. His sangfroid amazed the officers and they put him down as innocent or a master hand of criminality.

The other, younger and much weaker, showed signs of breaking down. Just what he admitted the secret service men refuse to disclose, but it is believed to be tantamount to a confession. Anyway, the admissions he made started the investigators into renewed activity. Half a dozen operatives started out and results are expected in the next twenty-four or forty-eight hours.

Escape Impossible.

Every employe of the office is under surveillance day and night and should one or more of them prove to be the thief or thieves, escape will be impossible. All have reported for work daily since the discovery was made. Every man, too, is under bond, but not to any amount near the loot secured.

That the robbery was committed during working hours is almost a certainty. The plunder could have been concealed in two vest, pockets.

The huge vault of the sub-treasury is constructed of many layers of chilled steel and has a number of doors which must be passed before entrance is secured to the apartment containing the money. The theft of money which had once got into the vault has been regarded as an impossibility. Each of the three Sub-Treasurer's Statement.

When interviewed today in regard to the robbery, Sub-Treasurer Boldenweck admitted that a theft of $173.000 had been definitely determined just where the shortage occurred, but he declined to say to where it had been traced. He declined, however, that the robber had the only reason for believing the money stolen had been in bills of large decompation was that it would have been impossible for anybody to have taken $173.000 from the office in small bills and escaped detection, but that a package of $173.000 in $1,000 bills could have been carried by one person easily without excit-ing suspicion.

Boston, Feb. 25.—There seems to be no reason for the heavy liquidation today, but everybody is a bear and stocks are being freely sold, all through the list. Osceola, Centennial and Allouez, which have advanced so much on Calumet & Hecla buying, were especially weak today. We recommend especially Copper Range, Shannon, North Butte, Osceola and Tamarack.

enough to make the assertion in an advertisement recently that the Concentrated oil of pine was an imitation of their goods. There is not much to be said against such audacity except that it is to be hoped that the public is too intelligent to be gulled by such an imposition.

The real "Concentrated" oil of pine is obtainable at any well-stocked prescription druggist and is plainly marked. It comes only in one way and that is half-ounce bottles, each inclosed in a round screw top box which protects the oil from changes of the atmosphere and in this way makes it impossible for the ozone in oil to escape, and it can be preserved indefinitely.

ACT

June 30, 1906 In Effect January 1, 1907 A GOOD LAW

We endorse the Pure Drug Law, because we have always believed in its principles, and because it means that the American people will find the strong arm of the Government protecting them from RANK FAKES, IMITATIONS AND SUB-STITUTES made of adulterated, impure, worthless and even dangerous drugs. This sort of thing has been an imposition, fraud and crime against the People, as well as against the responsible manufacturers of honest, reliable remedies, and it was high time for it to be stopped. Misrepresentation and substitution of "something just as good" will now be done away with.

The principles of the Food and Drugs Act have been always favored by conscientious and honorable manufacturers, who recognized that Purity and Quality alone could permanently secure the favor of the nation.

So the makers of Cascarets Candy Cathartic recognized the great principles of PURITY, QUALITY and MEDICINAL MERIT when the first tablet was made, over eleven years ago, and have adhered to them ever

Cascarets stand alone on their record, of having gained in that short period of time the friendship, confidence and patronage of millions of people, who are now buying Cascarets at the rate of over a MILLION BOXES A MONTH,—the largest sale of any Bowel Medicine in all the

We endorse the Pure Drug Law. It suits us, because we have always stood before our friends unafraid and clear of conscience, made our contracts good to every one, and in the conduct of our business, had the good fortune to help hundreds of thousands of our fellow-citizens back to health and life.

We have no reason to hesitate, and so we do not hesitate, to recommend Cascarets to all sufferers from Constipation and all complications arising therefrom. Also any other diseases of the food-canal. We are advertised by our loving friends and whenever the American people pass judgment in favor of an article after over ten years of investigation, trial and test,-their verdict speaks for itself. The greatest merit of Cascarets however, is that of being a positive and reliable preventive of disease. The most important function of the human body is to keep its digestive channels and passages, with over thirtysix feet of bowels, strictly clean and disinfected, so that natural operation can take place in a natural manner, and the growth and activity of disease

A Cascaret at night before "turning in" will keep your Bowels regular, and your whole digestive canal wholesome, pure and normally active.

No matter what you have been taking, buy a little 10c. box TODAY at your own druggist, and let the results tell their own story. It means a lot of health and comfort in store for you.
